About the Trainer

Hi, I'm Nee and that goofy Goldie is Kiyo. I have a Ph.D. in Zoology, specialising in the study of animal behaviour, and I am certified by the Animal Behaviour College (USA) as a dog obedience instructor.

I use only reward-based, positive reinforcement and clicker training methods. My goal is to help you develop a life-long relationship with your dog, based on a sound understanding of behaviour and clear communication.

It's all about positive reinforcement, and helping your dog to succeed, it's never about punishment!
